Brain Leaks.

The man of pluck never trusts to luck.

It is easy to find excuse for those we love.

The foolish man syndicates his troubles and dissipates his joys.

Early to bed and early to rise won't help a bit if you don't advertise.

Every dog has his day, the trouble being that so many dogs choose the same day.

Speaking of confiding natures—how about those people who put their trust in the labels on the cans.

The trouble about a bad habit that you can quit if you want to is that when you want to you can't.

The man who says he could win if he had a chance, is the man who is too cowardly to take chances.

Was Wasting Away.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by J. H. Orme.

THE COURIER'S OFFER

Elsewhere in this issue will be found an advertisement offering the Daily Evansville Courier for $1.50 per year.

Never before has such a liberal offer been made whereby you could secure a newsy and up-to-date newspaper for such a low price. The Courier occupies the front rank in a newspaperdom of southern Indiana and is as complete as brains and money can make it. It carries the full reports of the Associated Press, and is represented by special correspondents at all the important news centers. The number of brilliant news features inaugurated by The Courier in the last few years is characteristic of the progressive policy of its management and emphasizes the fact that nothing is too good for our readers.

Our reason for giving you this opportunity to secure The Courier at this price is that we feel that once we secure your subscription you will always be one of our readers and make this concession in order to get a trial subscription.

They are all using it. Join the procession and down with sickness. Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00. Sold by J. H. Orme.

Carnegie Tells of Fear.

Andrew Carnegie is famous for the advice he gives to poor young men. "In considerable fear," said a New York millionaire, "I once consulted Mr. Carnegie about a new venture. The business looked as if it ought to be profitable. There seemed to be a public need of it. Still, there was some risk involved and I was afraid."

"But Mr. Carnegie laughed at my fear. 'It is a good thing; plunge in,' he said. 'Fear is old womanish. Fear is what keeps untold millions from making fortunes. When Benjamin Franklin thought of starting a paper in Philadelphia his mother, greatly alarmed, tried to dissuade him. She pointed out that there were already two newspapers in America.'—Rochester Herald

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

Why?

Why, muvver, why?
Did God pin the stars up so high in the sky?
Why did the cow jump right over the moon?
An' why did the dish run away with the spoon?
Cause didn't he like to see the cow fly?
Why, muvver, why?
Why, muvver, why?
Can't little boys jump to the moon if they try?
An' why can't they swim just like fish and fings?
An' why does the little birdies have wings?
An' live little boys have to wait till they die?
Why, muvver, why?
Why, muvver, why?
Was all of vose blackbirds all baked in a pie?
Why couldn't we have one if I should say "please"?
An' why does it worry when little boys tease?
An' why can't things never be now—but time by?

As Children Do.

Sometimes, when night is creeping down,
And all the world about is dim,
And he must go to Sleepytown,
You lie down at the side of him
And whisper soothing little things
In childish words, such as you frame
To tell the sound of beetle wings
And how the firefly gets its fame.
And soon the world grows darker yet
And to the little fellow's eyes
Strange, hidden dangers now beset
The shadows places in the skies;
But you speak low and comforting
And tell him none of them are there,
That near him is not anything
But what is good and kind and fair.
Then trembling comes his little hands
Out through the dark and finds your face,
As though by touch he understands
That he is in the safest place;
And so with fingers on your cheek
He sighs contentedly to sleep—
And you, you may not even speak,
So very, very still you keep.
Sometimes you, as a little child,
Shall fare into an unknown night
And shall yearn for the stars that smiled
With all their soothing, drowsy light;
And you, as little children do.

May grope out through the darks of space
And sigh in peace to sleep, when you
At last have touched your father's face.
